

Ms. Stringer's Third Grade ELA/Social Studies
Week of March 2-6, 2020

“I Can” focus for the week:

- I can participate in Book Clubs.
- I can analyze characters in fiction text.
- I can spell words with hard and soft c / hard and soft g
- I can identify and use adjectives.
- I can learn new vocabulary with “Word of the Day”: word, part of speech, synonyms, antonyms, sentence, pictorial representation (Frayer Model)
- I can use a plan to write a narrative composition.
- I can add details to my writing by using “Show, not Tell.”
- I can learn about explorers: Columbus, Vasco Da Gama, Balboa, Magellan, Henry Hudson

Monday:

Classwork:

“Show, Not Tell” Writing Lesson
Introduce spelling list: hard and soft c / hard and soft g
Introduce new Book Clubs
Special Text Features activities
Homework: Alphabetize any 12 of your spelling words

Tuesday:

Classwork:

Make a plan for a narrative writing composition
Word of the Day: Foreign, Absurd
Adjectives: Articles-A, An, The
Book Clubs
Week 16, World Communities Studies Weekly: Introduction to “The Age of Discovery and Colonization”
Homework: Read article, “Wild, Wild Weather” and answer questions

Wednesday:

Classwork:

Narrative Writing: “Hook” your reader
Word of the Day: Vanquish
Demonstrative Adjectives tell which one: this, that, these, those
Explorer: Christopher Columbus
Homework: Write about, “Ways to Stay Healthy”

Thursday:

Classwork:

Narrative Writing: Beginning, Middle, End
Comparing with Adjectives: Ex: big, bigger, biggest
Word of the Day: Remedy, Dapper
Book Clubs
Explorer: Vasco Da Gama
Homework: Spelling Test tomorrow

Friday:

Classwork:

Narrative Writing: “Show, Not tell”
Spelling Test
Word of the Day: Abscond
Analyze character traits of Book Club’s main character
Homework: No Homework! Enjoy your weekend!